His story-

In 1946, I am 9 years old in the Third grade. I, Joey my friend and fellow artist got asked to paint a mural in the Principal's Office. We painted a flying horse. So that started us going to art classes at the Cleveland Museum of Art.

Joey's mom drove us there, then he stopped taking class. I keep going on the street car. The classes were upstairs over the exhibit hall. You had to go through the exhibit hall to get to the stairs. A new show had just opened in the exhibit hall that stopped me dead in my tracks. It was this amazing group of paintings, large, beautiful expressive paintings. I had never seen anything this impressive. The paintings were done by someone named HENRI MATISSE, and I said: I WANT TO DO THIS! I am still doing it. Come take a look.
